Amsterdam, July 3 .- Serious potato Secretary Daniels' Statement.

"It is with the joy of great relief that I announce to the people of the United States the safe arrival in France of every fighting man and every fighting ship.

"Now that the last vessel has reached port, it is safe to disclose the dangers that were encountered, and to tell even the street and bridges leading to the chief vegetable market but despite precautions enormous crowds collected, including many women carrying children.

A fierce battle developed in the dark until midnight, when troops closed the entrance to the market. The transports bearing our troops to market on Handels Kade. A rumor marines on the way across. On both occasions the U-boats were beaten off with every appearance of loss. One was certainly sunk, and there is reason to believe that the accurate fire of our gunners sent others to the bottom.

Blue and crimson and white it shines, Over the steel-tipped, ordered lines. Hats off!

The colors before us fly; But more than the flag is passing by.

Sea-fights and land-fights, grim and great, Fought to make and to save the State: Weary marches and sinking ships; Cheers of victory on dying lips;

Days of plenty and years of peace; March of a strong land's swift increase: Equal justice, right and law, Stately honor and reverend awe;

Sign of a nation, great and strong To ward her people from foreign wrong: Pride and glory and honor—all Live in the colors to stand or fall.
